POWHATAN COUNTY ANNOUNCES

El Jinete Mexican Restaurant

Powhatan County, VA – The Powhatan County Economic Development Department is pleased to announce the opening of El Jinete Mexican Restaurant in the South Creek Shopping Center which is located ten minutes west of Route 288. The restaurant officially opened on July 9th and is planning a grand opening on Saturday July 21st. The grand opening will include specials on food and drinks, raffles, gift certificates and a Mariachi band. The new restaurant is the second location for the family owned operation with their first successful location in Cumberland, Virginia. The family run business is headed by husband and wife duo Coby and Rosie Cobian. The duo has operated with a loyal fan base in Cumberland for the last three years and with that accomplished success decided to expand their fan base to Powhatan County.

The new location is a much larger space for the family run restaurant with seating for 270 and a beautiful custom created bar by Coby Cobian himself. The restaurant will continue Taco Tuesday and Quesadilla Wednesday as well as their various introductions of new and interesting specials. The main restaurant and patio are open currently and a side room for parties and meetings will open later in the fall. Always being greeted as “Amigos!”, the Cobian family prefers to treat all their customers like family.
