POWHATAN COUNTY ANNOUNCES

Three Crosses Distillery wins World Whiskies Award

Powhatan County, VA – The Powhatan County Economic Development Department is pleased to announce Three Crosses Distilling Company’s recent win from the 2020 World Whiskies Awards Competition for Best Whiskey, 12 years or younger Grain category. The Powhatan based whiskey won the Silver Award in the category among other whiskeys valued over $600 per bottle. The awards are based out of London and select the very best in all the international recognized styles to award and promote the world’s best whiskeys to consumers and trade them across the globe.

This is the second international award won by the distillery since opening their business in August of 2018. The distillery also has awards from the Great American Spirits Competition, New York International Spirits Competition, American Distilling Institute, Virginia Bourbon Invitational, Sunset International Spirits Competition and Virginia Living’s Made in Virginia Awards. The distillery is run by wife and husband duo Michelle and John Davenport in the heart of the Powhatan Village.
