Powhatan County Announces Pocahontas Landmark Center Renovations Complete

Powhatan, VA – Powhatan County is excited to announce that the Pocahontas Landmark Center gymnasium and training room renovations are complete. The County had previously planned on opening and scheduling the gymnasium for use in December 2020 however, due to the current COVID-19 restrictions, the opening of the gymnasium will be delayed until February 1, 2021. In the event the current state health restrictions are lifted, Powhatan County will announce an earlier opening date. Please check the website, www.powhatanva.gov, or our Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/powhatancountyva>, for future updates. Questions and concerns can be directed to the Recreation Coordinator listed above.
