PCPL's Summer Fun for Teens Features Pokémon, Warrior Cats, & More

POWHATAN, VA – Powhatan County Public Library's Teen Summer Reading Program, Tails & Tales, kicks off June 21 and runs through July 31. Themed events for teens include an outdoor Pokémon Terrarium event, Take & Make craft kits themed to the popular book series Warrior Cats, an online Murder Mystery, and a service project supporting the Powhatan Animal Shelter. Virtual Game Nights will be hosted on the library's Teen Discord server on weeks that don't include a themed event. Visit our Instagram page @PCPL teens, or email PCPLteens@powhatanlibrary.net for the link to join in the fun.

Teens may pick up a summer reading packet, including a calendar of events, at the front desk of the library beginning June 21. Participating teens may complete a reading checklist sheet to earn points to win one of three grand prizes featuring themed book bundles and gift cards. PCPL's teen summer reading program is open to youth ages 12-18.

Maintaining good reading habits over summer break is important for students of all ages. Library summer reading programs battle summer learning loss by encouraging a lifelong love of reading. Summer Reading Program events and prizes are funded through sponsorship from the friends of the Powhatan County Public Library.
